

Motivational Interviewing Training Series

Denise Ernst, Ph.D.
Stéphanie Wahab, Ph.D., M.S.W.

Two-Day Introduction to Motivational Interviewing (MI)

June 15-16th, 2020 - $450

This 2-day intensive workshop (part of an MI training series—ask for flyer) will:

1. Describe the “spirit,” key principles and four processes of Motivational Interviewing (MI)
2. Critically engage MI demonstrations via videos and live examples
3. Demonstrate and practice the spirit and primary skills associated with MI, with specific attention to evoking change talk
4. Become familiar with and practice the range of skills used in MI to engage with clients, focus the scope of the work, evoke change talk, dancing with discord and negotiate a change plan

Target Audience

These trainings are appropriate for helping professionals and paraprofessionals in the role of supporting individuals to make and sustain behavior changes: social workers, physicians, nurses, health educators, care managers, dietitians, counselors, psychologists, life and health coaches, clergy, probation/corrections officers, personal trainers, school counselors, and educators.

Included in the Workshop

- 14 hours of high-level training from national and international MINT trainers
- Light breakfast/Coffee Breaks/Light Snacks
- University venue with local food carts and hotels within walking distance
- 13 Social Work CEUs (6.25 and 6.75 Hours)

Daily Schedule

9:00am-5:00pm; Lunch: 12:00-1:15pm

Training Location - Portland State University

Portland State University- exact location TBD

- Located in the heart of downtown Portland in the middle of campus. (See map on next page.)
- Easily accessible via public transportation, with a host of nearby accommodations and restaurants.

Held in beautiful Portland, Oregon at Portland State University

Denise Ernst, Ph.D.
MI Training and Consulting

Limited to 40 participants—register TODAY!

DeniseErnst.com

WahabTraining.com

STÉPHANIE WAHAB
MOTIVATIONAL INTERVIEWING
training and consulting